

Does your insurance broker have staff dedicated to the risk management needs of the food industry?

We do. At Odell Studner, we work with clients ranging from manufacturers to distributors both regionally and nationally. We help control risk through a well-structured program that provides the broadest coverages at highly competitive rates.

Benefits of Working with Us

EXTENSIVE FOOD INDUSTRY KNOWLEDGE

Odell Studner insures many top food wholesalers and distributors in the region. We've created long-term partnerships with them to better understand their operations and risk management concerns to help bring solutions to their businesses.

DEDICATED TEAM

Our proactive, highly qualified team fully understands the complexities surrounding the food industry. From in-house counsel to claims management to loss control prevention and safety services, we deliver tailored solutions through a comprehensive range of services.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION EXPERTISE

We are highly skilled in workers' compensation and insure companies in every state. Our team provides services ranging from food-specific loss control programs to advanced claims analytics and cost containment programs.

CAPTIVE EXPERTISE

Our Alternative Risk/Captives Practice serves more than 130 clients nationwide that currently benefit from a variety of captive, risk-retention and self-insurance solutions.
